

Complete Line of Holiday Goods

AT

Duerson's Drug Store.

Phone 129. No. 10 Court St.

PERSONAL.

Wm. Day, of Bethel, was here on Friday.

Mrs. I. F. Tabb has returned from Flemingsburg.

Mrs. John Stofor and Miss Mary Cobb Stofor have returned from Missouri.

Mrs. R. C. Lloyd, of our city, has rented a home at Winchester and moved there.

Arthur and Joe Ricketts have gone to visit their parents, J. T. Ricketts and wife in Texas.

Chenault Cockrell, Gilbert Triplett and Johnson Young have returned from South Bend, Ind.

Wm. Clayton, of Rozenburg, Tex., has been visiting Bath and Montgomery friends for two weeks.

Mrs. L. H. Willis, of Nicholasville, en route to Ashland, stopped for a few hours to see her son, Dr. Willis.

Miss Fannie M. Robertson left yesterday for Liberty, Mo., to attend the funeral of her uncle, Hood Cravens.

Miss Mary Clay and Mrs. Clay (nee Grigsby, of Winchester), visited Mrs. Owings and other relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turley and children and Miss Mae Richardson have returned from a week's trip to Morgan county. Mr. Turley reports fine luck hunting.

The hat pins we have for the Christmas trade are beauties and will be a joy forever to the lady who receives one for a holiday present.

That extra good suit for your boy at

That tie is beautiful. The Louisville Store keeps a large stock of fancy ties for men and boys, all suitable for a Xmas gift.

1847 Rogers plated ware at

A diamond represents not alone the most beautiful of ornaments, but the best possible investment. I guarantee the quality as well as the price. J. W. Jones. 21-3.

DEATHS.

RUNYAN.—Mrs. Gabriella Runyan died at her home on Greenbriar, in this county. She was the widow of Benjamin Runyan, and was one of the oldest women in the county.

PIERATT.—The wife of Joe M. Pieratt died at their home in this county on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 5, 1909. The funeral service was held on Tuesday morning by Rev. Tyler, of the Methodist church from Wolfe county, and the burial was in our city. Mrs. Pieratt was a Miss Cannoy. The family moved here from near Maytown in Morgan county. She leaves her husband and four children: Roy, of Wolfe county, Mrs. W. W. Quicksall, Clarence and Miss Jennie. She was a most excellent woman, and patiently endured a long and painful affliction of cancer on the breast.

TYLER.—Mrs. Margaret Tyler, aged 62, died at the home of her son, Norval Benton, in Winchester, on Sunday. The funeral service was at the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday and the burial was in Winchester cemetery. Her maiden name was Margaret Talbott, of Bourbon county. She was thrice married; first to Norval Benton, of Clark, then to Esq. Wm. S. Richart and J. O. Tyler, of our county. She was for some years a resident of our city. She leaves two sons: Prof. Robert Benton, of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Norval, with whom she lived. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church. W. T. Tyler, of our city, was a pall bearer.

WELSH.—Mr. John H. Welsh died at his home in this county near Camargo on Monday morning, Dec. 6, 1909, at 5 o'clock. The funeral service will be held at St. Patrick's Catholic church on this, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock; services by Rev. Thomas McCaffrey. The interment will be in St. Thomas cemetery. He has been an invalid since March 26, suffering from abscess in his jaw and other complications and has been a great sufferer. His wife survives him. Their only child, Henry, died on March 24, 1909. He has two brothers, Tom, of Mattoon, Ill., and Dan of this county; and six sisters: Mrs. W. W. George, of Winchester; Mesdames Jas. Maddox, and James McDonald, Misses Mary, Kate and Lillie, all of this county. Many friends will sympathize with the family. Mr. Welsh was a farmer, a highly respected and worthy citizen.

A pedestal, taboret or flower box will make an attractive Xmas gift.

Aren't they beauties? A full line of ladies' and Misses' gloves at the Louisville Store.

Overcoats. All styles, qualities, weights and lengths.

Pretty line of belt buckles for your best girl's holiday gift.

RELIGIOUS

An interesting program for Children's Day was observed at the Christian church Bible School on Sunday. The offerings together with the supplemental funds will amount to $60.

Last Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church a good audience assembled to hear and see the first of six successive Sunday services illustrated by pictures on a large canvass 12 feet square, and interspersed with songs. Next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, the second of this series will be given. Most of these lectures are on phases of life and work in the United States. No admission fee is charged.

The Rev. Moss, pastor of the First Baptist church of Malden, Mass., is a firm believer in newspaper advertising. Each week an advertisement is placed in one of the local papers inviting the public. Rev. Moss, however, takes great pains to state that he is not inviting members of other congregations, but only those without any church affiliations. A recent advertisement reads: "To every home in Malden with no church affiliations this invitation is sent to come and enjoy the blessings of our Sunday service."

$10, $12.50, $15 and $18 suits and overcoats, Michael, Stern & Co. the maker.

The prettiest line of fancy combs for Christmas gifts ever brought to Mt. Sterling. They have to be seen to be appreciated.

Watch our Saturday specials.

Everything in cut glass at

The Weather.

During last week the weather continued fine, heavy wraps being not needed. A change came with Sunday afternoon, rain, falling temperature. On Monday morning the register was 23 degrees above zero; but pleasant weather followed, with heavy rain at night, thermometer 50 degrees Tuesday morning with heavy clouds and wind. At noon the thermometer had fallen about 13 degrees. The weather has been unusually mild thus far.

The Fair has the largest line of holiday goods this year they have ever had. A visit to this store will help you in making your Xmas purchases. They have something for all ages. A large line of dolls, doll hats, shoes, necklaces and muffs, toy trunks and doll go-carts.

Be comfortable in a pair of lady's fancy house slippers, as low as 79 cents at the Louisville Store.

The best selection of dolls, toys, China and glassware at the usual cut rate price.

Spot Cash Grocery.

Memorial Postponed.

The scheduled Memorial service by the B. P. O. E. lodge for last Sunday had to be postponed on account of the sickness of Judge DuRelle, of Louisville, who was the orator for the occasion.

Mammoth White Turkeys.

A few Toms and hens for sale.

Returns to Montgomery.

Dr. J. T. Ricketts has rented his farm on the Camargo and Levee cross pike to Mr. Sam Estes, of Catlettsburg, formerly of this county.

Leg Crushed.

On Saturday a loaded wagon of coal ran over a little negro boy, son of Maggie Black, and crushed his leg below the knee. He attempted to climb on the wagon and fell under.

BIRTHS.

On Wednesday, December 1st, 1909, to the wife of Geo. R. Snyder, in this county, a son.

Good shoes for bad boys.

Festoon necklaces and pendants at Jones' Jewelry Store.

The Fair buys their candy direct from the factory—always fresh and good—only 10c a pound.

A fine selection of silk Mufflers at 49 cents at the Louisville Store.

Folding feather-weight card tables are just the thing for Xmas gifts.

Lost.—Ladies' skirt. Kindly return to Spot Cash Grocery.

About forty-four and one-half acres unimproved corn and tobacco land for rent. Apply to T. F. ROGERS, Real Estate Agent.

THE SICK.

Reuben Barnes, who was thrown from a horse and who has been in a Lexington hospital for some weeks, is in a hopeless condition. He will be brought home tomorrow.

To South Kentucky For Many Birds.

H. E. Prewitt and Marcus Prewitt left on Sunday for Isley, Hopkins county, Ky., where they will be guests of Senator-elect R. M. Salmon during a bird hunt. They will return Friday night with, we hope, many birds.

On Saturday H. E. Prewitt sold to O. B. Clark his farm of 105 acres, on the Winchester pike, for $15,000, or $142.86 per acre. This is the Sandy Scobee farm.

Dress, driving, street and work gloves.

Fancy combs and hair ornaments in large assortment at the Louisville Store.

Everything in fancy stationery at Kennedy's drug store.

We keep—no we sell sweaters for men and boys. The Louisville Store.

Boys' silk plush, Wrights & Rus underwear.

Chester Connor, of Bath, accidentally shot his arm off with a shotgun. He was sitting on a fence and attempted to step to the ground when his foot caught on a nail and the gun was discharged.

Congress

convened in its 61st session on Monday. The Senate was in session only 13 minutes and the House 40 minutes.

Wool Pool.

Representative wool growers met in convention at Lexington on yesterday to form a pool of their product.

To Richmond For Cattle.

On Sunday Jno. T. Woodford and son, Chenault, went to Richmond to attend court and buy cattle, and bought few.

Our line of Christmas mirrors is new and attractive.

Confusion of Poisons.

The Russians may make a mistake in putting a skull-and-cross-bones label on bottles of vodka. They will teach the simple peasant, who cannot read, to look for the poison label when he is thirsty, and who can tell how much carbolic acid, vitriol and such deadly drugs will be taken in the guise of the other poison?

Always Snow on Pike's Peak. There is never a part of the year when Pike's Peak is entirely without snow. In the hottest July and August weather snow is to be found even at a considerable distance from the top of the mountain.

So Concise. Sabbath thought. The greatest sermon that was ever preached anywhere contains only 303 words.

Think It Over

and you will readily see how it will be possible to freshen up the parlor and the bedroom.

A Chair Here A Table There to replace those worn or wearing out, makes a great difference in a room. It isn't the quantity but the quality of the furniture in a room which makes it artistic.

We Sell

Artistic, Good, Strong and Durable Furniture at economical prices. If you don't believe it, come and see.

Our Undertaking Department is complete and up-to-date in every particular. Call and see us.

We are located on corner of Bank and Main streets.

W. A. SUTTON & SONS

MT. STERLING, KY.

Land, Stock & Crop

FOR SALE.—One hundred and seventy-five mountain ewes.

For Veterinary Service day or night call on Dr. W. B. Robinson, Phone 135, Anderson's Stable, 19tf

Judge Lewis Apperson has sold his farm of 394 acres near Sideview for $106 per acre to the Security Vault Company, trustees of Rick Thomas, of this city.

Gilbert Triplett, of this city, and Will Shropshire, of Winchester, sold their great show mare, "Golden Butterfly," by Bourbon Chief, to Mr. Simpson, of Nicholasville, for $3,250.

J. L. Henry and J. H. Fugate, of Bonny, Ky., were in this city Monday with their tobacco, which they had sold to Allie W. Robert, son. Mr. Henry had 4,000 pounds at 14c, and Mr. Fugate 2,000 at 12½ cents.

We offer our farms for sale at a bargain if sold at once: One farm of 87 acres has 34 acres overflowed creek bottom, balance good hill land; and one farm of 114 acres has 60 acres creek bottom, balance good hill land. Some timber, all well watered on Beaver creek, 10 miles from Frenchburg, known as the Wesley Williams farm. If you want a bargain come at once or write Menefee or John T. Borders, Scranton, Ky. 22-13t.

Quail.

W. R. Chinkenbeard and Gilbert Satterwhite spent last week in Bath and killed 93 quail.

Richard Stofor and Roger Hedden last week killed 145 quail.

Little Things Annoy or Please Us

Little things annoy us—the little curl of smoke that, if left alone, would soon smudge the furnishings and make work for the house-wife. There are no annoying little things in the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

They've been banished by hard thought and tireless work. In their stead there are little things that please—that make for comfort and satisfaction. The little self-locking that actually prevents smoke—the little lock on the inside of the tube that holds the wick in check—keeps it below the smoke zone, so accurately adjusted that it cannot go wrong—these are some of the little things that please—that have contributed to the name and fame of the Perfection Oil Heater.

Automatic Smokeless Device

The most satisfying heater you can buy—always ready—easy to manage—always dependable—quickly cleaned. Brass font holds 4 quarts—burns 9 hours. Attractively finished in Nickel or Japan in various styles and finishes.

Every Dealer Everywhere. If Not At Yours, Write for Descriptive Circular to the Nearest Agency of the

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

(Incorporated)

Away....
From the Common Place

INTO THE

Realms of the Best

WHEN YOU USE

Kerr's Perfection
...Flour

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR OR MR. TABB

FURS

In order to reduce our large stock to make place for the stock now being manufactured for the holiday trade we will offer this week only on all our handsome stock of FINE FURS, including Fur Coats, Jackets, Scarfs, Muffs, etc.

25 PER CENT. OFF

Furs For Millinery—We will also give you 25 per cent. off on all skins for Fur-trimmed Hats.

Furs Remodeled—At low prices. Highest class work guaranteed.

M. LOWENTHAL

Importer and Maker of Fine Furs

17-13t

Fayette Phone 687-V

LEXINGTON, KY.